

Leadership Conference

Organised by The Worshipful Company of Launderers supported by the Oliver Family Education Trust

Communication

We all do it every day. But are we effective communicators? Are we getting our message across? Is communication delivered so it is received and understood? Are we easy to communicate with?

Effective communication is an essential tool in achieving productivity and maintaining strong working relationships within any organisation. With this in mind the Worshipful Company of Launderers is holding the second Oliver Family Education Fund Seminar entitled:

Communication – the Necessity for Success

Current Speakers include:

General Sir Mark Poffley KCB OBE, Deputy Chief of the Defence Staff

Chris Sander ex CEO of Johnson Service Group

David Stevens MD of Newgen

These speakers will share how their successful organisations were built upon effective communications and outline how we can learn from their experiences to the benefit of both ourselves and those we work with.

Coffee and Registration from 9.30am, with the programme commencing at 10am, a light lunch from 12.30 to 1pm with the afternoon Speakers finishing by 3.30pm.
